A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework.

"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health.

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui.

See yours about it.

BANKER DECLARED DEAD MAY BE VERY MUCH ALIVE

(Herald Special.)

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 20.—The case of Mrs. Edna Kimmel Bonslett vs. the New York Life Insurance company, which has occupied the attention of the courts for ten years and has come to be known as the strangest insurance case on record, was called for trial today in the United States circuit court. The case involves an insurance policy of $25,000 which Geo. Kimmel, at one time a well-known resident of Niles, Mich., and late-cashier of a bank in Arkansas City, Kas., carried with the New York company.

In 1898, shortly after taking out the insurance policy in favor of his sister, Mrs. Edna K. Bonslett, Kimmel disappeared from Arkansas City. Detectives followed him to Kansas City, but no further trace of him was found until 1908, when Andrew J. White, an inmate of a New York asylum for the criminal insane, declared himself to be Kimmel. The man was later pronounced sane and transferred from the Matteawan asylum to the state prison at Auburn.

The convict made a deposition consisting of over seven hundred typewritten pages, throughout which he endeavored to identify himself as Kimmel. His explanation of his disappearance was that a relative was implicated in the embezzlement of $100,000 from the Pacific Express company, and that he had damaging evidence against him. He declared the relative and others caused him to be drugged and kept a prisoner in St. Louis. When he made his escape he met his relative on the street, was knocked senseless by him and when he recovered found himself in a hospital. He left St. Louis in 1899, going to Philadelphia and later to New York, where he soon got into trouble and was sent to prison.

Mrs. Bonslett brought suit to recover the insurance on her brother's life. The St. Louis courts declared him dead, but the United States circuit court of appeals declared the evidence insufficient and the judgment against the insurance company was reversed. Since the first trial the convict White was unearthed and the insurance company is now resisting payment on the ground that he is the real Kimmel. A number of Michigan and Kansas people who had known Kimmel intimately were taken to Matteawan to see the convict, and while some were convinced that he was the missing man, others, including Kimmel's mother and sister, declare that the convict is an imposter.

THE HAIR BRUSH

Breeds Dandruff, Which Causes Falling Hair and Finally Baldness.

Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says that dandruff is as contagious as any other malevolent disease, and that one common source of the spread of dandruff is the use of the same hair brush by different persons. The way to avoid catching dandruff or any other disease from another's brush, is to insist on the use of Newbro's Herpicide. It not only kills the dandruff germ, but it is also an antiseptic that will prevent the catching of any disease whatever through contagion of another's brush.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

One dollar bottles guaranteed. Bratton Drug Co., Special Agents.—Adv.

How to Stop Drinking.

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure this condition. Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. Can be given secretly.

Write for free booklet on the Cure of Alcoholism to the Orrine Co., 710 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Mailed sealed. Orrine costs but $1 per box. Sold in this city by Bratton Drug Co., 412 Spring street.—Adv.
